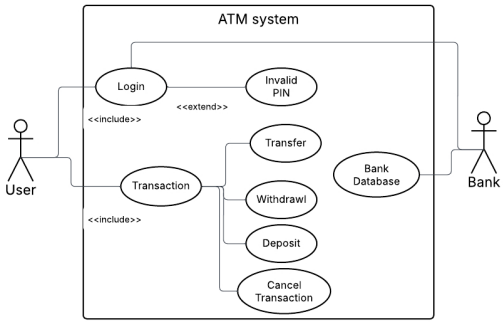
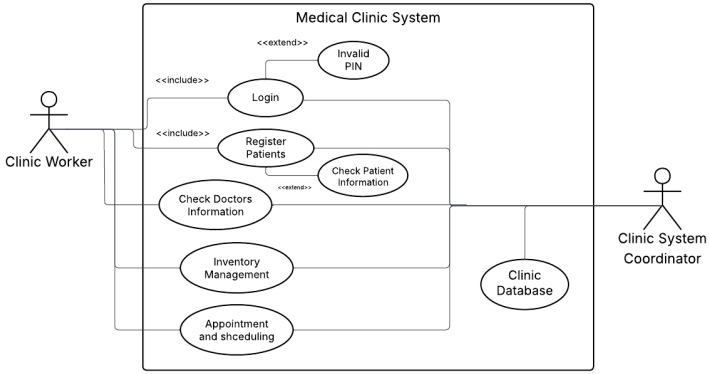
LAB 2 USE CASE

1



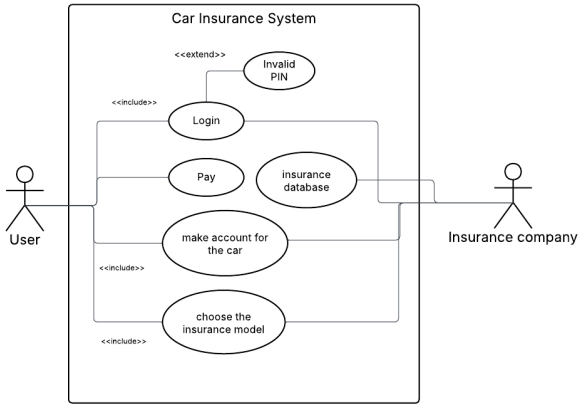
The system allows users to login into the ATM using their pin and perform one of the basic transactions: transfer, withdrawl, deposit. The bank can look into the bank database and ban users.

2



The Systems allows the Clinic worker to log in, using their Clinic account and manage things like appointments, checking information about Inventory and Doctors. The Coordinator is able to check and change every information in the system.

3



The Systems allows the User to Login into his account, Pay for the insurance, register his car and choose the model. Insurance company is in charge of all information and can controll if the user payed